

Academic Conference Grant Program

ABOUT THE OPPORTUNITY:

This grant program is to support past ARI volunteers and interns who would like to present about ARI at an academic conference. Funding is also available for attending conferences related to ARI.

Help us spread the word about ARI through sharing your experience!

REQUIREMENTS:

Awardees must share their conference learnings with AFARI stakeholders, such as through a webinar or blog post.

HOW TO APPLY:

Email Sherry DeLeon (sherry@afari.net) with the name of the conference you would like to attend. And if presenting, include a short abstract.

SUGGESTED TOPICS & CONFERENCES:

- Asian Studies:
 - AsiaNetwork Conference
 - MCAA Conference
 - NYCAS Conference
 - AAS Conferences (regional)
- Environmental Studies:
 - AESS Conference
- Education:
 - AERA Conference
 - NAFSA Conference
 - AAHHE Conference
 - ACE Conference

Any proposed conference will be considered for funding as long as it connects to the teachings and activities of the Asian Rural Institute. Funding is up to $500 for travel and registration fees.
